

Carrie Manges, PTA

Regional Work Comp Specialist

CORA Physical Therapy

Lexington, SC

Carrie Manges, a SC native, has 10 years of clinical experience as a licensed Physical Therapist Assistant. Carrie has worked in several physical therapy settings before finding her passion and specialization in the field of Worker's Compensation with CORA Physical Therapy. Carrie has been with CORA since 2012, as a Regional Worker's Compensation Specialist in the state of SC. Carrie has worked diligently during her time with CORA PT to raise the bar for treating injured workers, staff education, employee and employer education, injury prevention programs, as well as special testing such as Functional Capacity Evaluations and Impairment Ratings. Carrie holds a CEAS certification and has attended American Medical Association training for the AMA Guides to Permanent Impairment 6th Edition.