Anthony Cortese was born in Pittsburgh, PA. He graduated with honors from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and was a member of the law review and published a Comment. He is an experienced attorney who represents injured workers under the Defense Base Act, Longshore Act, Florida State Workers' Compensation Act and in other types of litigation. He was admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania in 1982 and in Florida in 1986. He began handling Longshore claims in Pittsburgh in 1983, and now Longshore and Defense Base Act claims comprise the majority of his practice. He has also been admitted to practice in federal courts in the Middle District of Florida, in the 11th Circuit Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court. He is Chair of the Hillsborough County Bar Association Workers' Compensation Section and has served in that capacity for ten years. He is a member of the Florida Bar Association and the Hillsborough County Bar Association. He teaches and publishes articles regularly on subjects in his areas of practice. He is actively involved in every phase of each case.
