YARAH DALMAU

---

Summary

Yarah is a Sedgwick Inc. Senior Claims Examiner located in Lake Mary, Florida. She rejoined Sedgwick CMS in 2013 as a Claims Examiner after having recently left Sedgwick to finish her JD and work on the defense side. Yarah returned to claims bringing some more refined negotiations skills and legal knowledge with her. She has handled all levels of workers' compensation claims in multiple states for self-insured employers.

Yarah has experience completing investigations, evaluating and setting reserves, resolving litigation, conducting claim reviews. Her knowledge of Workers' Compensation Law in various jurisdictions makes her an asset to our team, as she is an eager participant in peer mentoring, training and continuous improvement projects. In addition to her experience and knowledge, Yarah's attention to detail, strong communication skills and follow through capabilities demonstrates her ability to deliver excellence to the clients to whom she provides service. Yarah supports the Sedgwick CMS core values of integrity and excellence in her work product.
