

Farrah L. Fielder
General Counsel, NAPEO
707 North Saint Asaph Street
Alexandria, VA 22314

Farrah Fielder serves as General Counsel for National Association of Professional Employer Organizations (NAPEO), where she focuses on federal legislation, healthcare issues, and other matters that affect the professional employer organization industry. Prior to working for NAPEO, Farrah was General Counsel and Director of Legal Services and Human Capital Development for several national professional employer organizations. In that capacity, she oversaw regulatory compliance and provided legal and human resource best practices for the companies. Before entering the PEO industry, Farrah defended corporate clients in employment matters, workers' compensation, medical malpractice and products liability. Farrah is admitted to practice law in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Georgia, and Virginia.