

Ashraf Hanna, MD

Florida Spine Institute
Clearwater, Florida

Dr. Ashraf Hanna is the Director of Pain Management - Florida Spine Institute. He is Board Certified in both Anesthesiology & Pain Management and has completed his Anesthesiology residency at Illinois Masonic Medical Center in Chicago, with six months of advanced clinical training in pain management.

Dr. Hanna completed a Pain Management Fellowship at Cleveland Clinic Foundation, is a Clinical Associate Professor at Nova Southeastern University, a Clinical Associate Professor at Lecom University and Past President for the Florida Academy of Pain Medicine.

He has co-authored several publications & delivered an award-winning research presentation at the Cleveland Society of Anesthesiology. His published papers include: Intravenous Ketamine Produces Long-Term Pain Relief in a Patient with Fibromyalgia, Fluoroscopic guided lumbar interlaminar epidural injections, Radiation exposure to a physician performing fluoroscopically guided caudal epidural steroid injections