

Bruce A. Hansbrough, DC, DACBOH, DACACD
National Registry of Certified Medical Examiners #9697272675
Diplomate, American Chiropractic Board of Occupational Health #51
Diplomate, American College of Addictionology and Compulsive Disorders #89

Doctor Bruce Hansbrough is a Florida licensed Chiropractic Physician and a Diplomate of the American Chiropractic Board of Occupational Health, and board certified as an Addictionologist. He has worked in integrative settings in Martin, St. Lucie, and Palm Beach Counties since 2013 with a mission to provide expert care to patients suffering with the disease of addiction and assisting addiction treatment facilities throughout Florida in establishing effective Integrative Health departments.

Doctor Hansbrough graduated from Life University in Marietta, Georgia in 1992. He became board certified in Occupational Health in 200 and board certified in addiction medicine in 2013. He is a NRCME certified medical examiner for the Department of Transportation since 2013 and has performed over 2500 driver examinations. He began working with treatment centers soon after completing his addiction medicine post-graduate work in 2013.

Today, Doctor Hansbrough is the Integrative Health Services Director for Dream Center For Recovery in Palm City and Coastal Detox in Stuart. He also advises and consults with other addiction treatment facilities and providers about the benefits and pitfalls in establishing and utilizing non-traditional medical services.

Doctor Hansbrough has been a prior speaker at the Florida Worker's Compensation Institute (FWCI) on five different occasions dating back to 2000. He recognized as early on as 1996 that opioid medications were being prescribed routinely for many simple musculoskeletal cases. He operated an occupational medicine practice from 1996 through 2015 in Stuart.

Doctor Hansbrough is a veteran and served as a commissioned officer from 1980 through 2002 in the United States Navy and Naval Reserve with three tours of duty in the Middle East and Persian Gulf regions. Doctor Hansbrough is also a graduate of the LEADERShip™ program of Martin County and received the prestigious Chiropractor of the Month award from the nationally acclaimed Chiropractic Leadership Alliance in June 2010. He served on the Board of Directors of the Martin County Red Cross from 1994 to 2005, and on the Palm City Chamber Board of Directors from 2003 through 2006.