

CHRISTINE L. HARTER

Christine L. Harter is an Attorney-Mediator. She received her Bachelor of Arts in International Relations at James Madison College, Michigan State University in 1988, and her Juris Doctor at Thomas Cooley Law School, Lansing, Michigan in 1991. Thereafter, she immediately moved out of the cold weather, took the Florida bar and landed in Ocala, Florida where she began practicing with a wonderful law firm that she later became a shareholder with. In 1998 she embarked upon a new adventure and became a sole practitioner.

She is a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Civil & County Mediator; a Florida Fifth District Court of Appeal Approved Mediator; a Certified Mediator for the U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida; a Mediator of cases in the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Florida; a Certified Mortgage Foreclosure Mediator, a volunteer Mediator for The Florida Bar Grievance Mediation and Fee Arbitration Program, and a Qualified Florida Arbitrator.

Christine owns Mediation & Dispute Resolution Center in Ocala, Florida. She mediates pre-suit and litigated cases in the central to northern Florida regions. She has mediated thousands of civil, federal and district court of appeal cases since 1996.
