

CLEMENT L. HYLAND is a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Court Mediator, a Certified Mediator for the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida, and a Florida Supreme Court Qualified Arbitrator with Mediate First in Orlando, Florida. Prior to becoming a full time mediator in July 2007, he represented individuals (Morgan & Morgan) and corporations and insurance companies (Zimmerman, Kiser and Sutcliffe) in cases involving personal injury, commercial, and labor and employment matters in state, federal, and appellate courts for more than 33 years.

He operated his own mediation practice (Hyland Mediation) until the September 4, 2012, merger with Mediate First where he is now one of the owners of the firm. For many years Clem has been a lecturer on legal issues for the National Business Institute and Lorman Education Service. He has also been certified by the State of Florida as an Assistant Trainer for circuit court mediation certification programs.

Clem earned his B.A. degree from St. Lawrence University, J.D. degree from DePaul University, and LL.M. degree from George Washington University. He is an "AV Rated" attorney.
