

Mary Re Knack, Attorney
Ogden Murphy Wallace PLLC

Re Knack is a member in the Seattle office of Ogden Murphy Wallace where her practice includes health care and insurance matters. Ms. Knack provides guidance and advice to the insurance industry and self-insureds with respect to their obligations under the Medicare Secondary Payer (MSP) Act and Section 111 of the Medicare, Medicaid and SCHIP Extension Act (MMSEA).

Ms. Knack also has extensive experience in addressing MSP issues as they arise in litigation. Ms. Knack provides creative and practical solutions to the obstacles and risks MSP poses to clients and insurers. In doing so, she also provides strategies to make sure Medicare's interest is protected while at the same time protecting clients' interests and obtaining as final a settlement as possible.

Ms. Knack frequently presents to lawyers, claims representatives and the insurance industry on handling of cases involving a Medicare beneficiary. Ms. Knack is the Immediate Past Chair of DRI's MSP Task Force where she co-authored DRI's Defense Practitioner's Guide to MSP Compliance.

Ms. Knack was named to Super Lawyers by Super Lawyers magazine for 2005 and 2010 - 2014. She has also been recognized by Seattle Met magazine as a "Top Lawyer" in Health Care for 2011 and has been designated as one of the "Top Women Attorneys in Washington" for 2012 - 2014.

Ms. Knack graduated with honors from the University of Connecticut School of Law in 1993 and received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Architecture and Urban Studies from Smith College in 1988. She is admitted in Alaska, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Washington.
