

Paul Koziatek, CPCU, ARM

Corporate Enterprise Risk Manager responsible for evaluating and overseeing the business decisions to mitigate or eliminate Company exposures and risks. He is a senior leader for the Risk Management team, ensuring that the organization has a sound internal control framework and environment. Paul oversees the design, development and evaluation of the risk control processes, insurance structure and claims management processes in order to protect the organization, its associates, property, product and profitability. This position also ensures compliance with safety and environmental legislation, industry practices, as well as local market requirements. Paul holds an MBA from Georgia State University - J. Mack Robinson College of Finance & Risk Management BBA from the University of Georgia in the study of Risk Management.