

Michael K. Marmer, Esquire

Samuelson, Gonzalez, Valenzuela & Brown, LLP
211 East Ocean Boulevard
Suite 500
Long Beach, CA 90802
O: (310) 831-0872

Mr. Marmer specializes in the following practice areas: Defense of employers and carriers in workers' compensation claims arising under the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (LHWCA), the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, the Defense Base Act (DBA), the War Hazards Compensation Act, as well as representation of employers and carriers in civil subrogation of claims arising under the Jones Act, the Federal Maritime Law, and Suits In Admiralty Act. He also practices defense of workers' compensation claims arising under the California Labor Code as well as civil subrogation in the California Superior Courts. He has jury trial and administrative trial experience in the U.S. District Courts, California Superior Courts, U.S. Office of Administrative Law Judges and before the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board of California.

Education:

Undergraduate, California State University at Long Beach, Bachelor of Political Science, 1973-1978
Graduate, Southwestern University School of Law, Juris Doctor, 1978-1981. Admitted to California Bar 1981.

Public Speaking/Lectures:

Longshore Claims Association, Panelist, Attorney fee issues arising under the LHWCA and DBA in the U.S. Ninth Circuit

Joint Department of Labor Bar Association which is a Claimant and defense counsel bar regarding practices and procedures under the LHWCA and DBA of claims before the Federal Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, and the Federal Office of Administrative Law Judges.

Hearing Loss Claims under the LHWCA; National Association of Waterfront Employers, West Gulf Maritime Association, June 2014.

Hearing Loss Claims under the LHWCA, Longshore Claims Association, Annual Conference, 2014.