Rosanne J. Shore is an honors graduate of York University, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She received her Juris Doctor from the University of Miami, School of Law in 1980. She is a member of the Florida Bar Association, and is admitted to practice in the Florida Supreme Court, the U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida, and the U.S. Court of Appeals.

She is certified by the Supreme Court of Florida as a Circuit Court Mediator since 1995, and is a member of the Association for Conflict Resolution and the American Arbitration Association.

Rosanne Shore was a founding owner and director of Health Assistance for Travelers, Inc., the U.S. operations center of Ontario Blue Cross. As such, Mrs. Shore was instrumental in the creation and implementation of a third party administration company that employed over 100 employees. From 1982 until 1994, Shore served as Executive Vice President, and was responsible for coordination of worldwide business and insurance related services for over one million clients of Blue Cross.

Upon the purchase of Health Assistance for Travelers, Inc. by WorldNet Services Corp., Shore served as President of WorldNet, responsible for Diners, MasterCard International, Liberty Health and Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce business. Rosanne Shore formed Center for Conflict Resolution in 1995 along with Thomas Glick. Since that time her concentration has been exclusively in the field of alternative dispute resolution, facilitating over hundreds of mediations per year.
