

M. George Waters

M. George Waters graduated from Georgia State University with a Bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies. He is an AV rated attorney, the highest possible rating, under the Martindale-Hubbell law firm rating system. He obtained a Juris Doctor from Georgia State University College of Law. He is the managing partner of the Georgia and Tennessee offices of Eraclides, Gelman, Hall, Indek, Goodman and Waters and also currently serves on the Atlanta Bar Association Workers' Compensation Executive Section Committee. He is licensed to practice in Georgia and Tennessee. He has been named as a "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers Magazine. He has handled numerous cases before the Georgia Court of Appeals and the Georgia Supreme Court including Shaw Industries v. Scott which was a unanimous decision in favor of the Employer/Insurer by the Georgia Supreme Court. He has had multiple other reported cases. He practices in the areas of workers' compensation defense, including subrogation, as well as general liability in both Georgia and Tennessee. Mr. Waters also enjoys a superb rating by Avvo.