

GLEN WIELAND, ESQUIRE

Glen Wieland graduated from Presbyterian College in 1979 and went on to obtain his law degree from the Cumberland School of Law at Samford University. In 1982, he began his law career with the firm of Walker and Buckmaster, P.A. representing employers, insurance carriers, and plaintiffs in both personal injury and workers' compensation. In 1987, he joined Jim Kelaher and formed Kelaher & Wieland, P.A. representing only plaintiffs in both personal injury and workers' compensation cases. He became Board Certified in workers' compensation in 1990 and has remained Board Certified since that time. Al Hialdo joined him as a partner in 1996 with Tom DeLattre becoming a partner in 2007. The firm is now known as Wieland, Hilado & DeLattre, P.A. Glen has twice served as President of the Florida Workers' Advocates and is still a member of the Board of Directors of that organization. He served as Chairman of the Workers' Compensation Section of the Academy of Florida Trial Lawyers (now known as the Florida Justice Association) and was asked to serve as an advisory to the Florida Division of Workers' Compensation on several occasions. He is currently on the Executive Council of the Workers' Compensation Section of the Florida Bar Association and is a Fellow in the College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers. His father, William "Bill" Wieland, served as a Judge of Compensation Claims for over 23 years. Glen has served his community as past Chair of the Orlando Area of the Homeless. He has been a member of the School Advisory Council for Conway Elementary School for 15 years. Glen is very active in his church, serving as the attorney for St. Alban's Cathedral, The Diocese of the Eastern United States of the Anglican Province of America and for the Anglican Province of America. Glen is a frequent lecturer on workers' compensation issues and serves as a faculty member of the Trial Advocacy Seminar for the Florida Bar Association Workers' Compensation Section. He is a member of the Workers Injury Law and Advocacy Group (WILG). Glen has been married to Kennie Wieland for 35 years and has two sons who are both attorneys.
