Yuannie Arroyo Casillas, was born in Bayamón, Puerto Rico. She attended University of Puerto Rico where she received a B.A. Degree in Social Work in 1999. Thereafter, she went on to pursue her childhood dream of becoming a lawyer. Mrs. Arroyo earned her Juris Doctor's degree from Inter American University Law School in Puerto Rico where she graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2003. While attending law School Mrs. Arroyo worked at the office of President of Senate, Antonio Faz Alzamora. As an intern she assisted in the creation of various legislation projects related to cooperatives and domestic violence. Mrs. Arroyo was admitted to the Puerto Rico Bar Association in 2004. She began her legal career under the tutelage of Miguel Hernandez Agosto, former President of Senate. Mrs. Arroyo was in charge of the real estate and mortgage division while working for Hernandez Agosto Law Firm. She managed millionaire accounts with major banks and mortgage institutions. Mrs. Arroyo also counseled the Secondary Market Division for Doral Bank. In 2007 together with Mirba Rivera she founded and became a member MY Legal Office. Mrs. Arroyo used to practice civil law in the areas of real estate, probate and estate, family law and immigration. She has offered various conferences to non-profit organizations and worked as an attorney for the Winter Training Program with former MLB player Eduardo Pérez. Since 2016, she is an adjudicator at the State Insurance Fund Corporation of the Government of Puerto Rico. She is an active member of her community where she counsels teens and young adults. Also, in her free time, Mrs. Arroyo offers legal counsel to a private elementary school in Caguas, Puerto Rico and the Puerto Rico Council of Churches. Yuannie Arroyo is bilingual (Spanish/English). She lives at Guaynabo, Puerto Rico with her husband and two kids.
