STEPHEN D. CHRISTIE represents Defendants in a wide range of tort, insurance and worker's compensation matters. A very large part of his practice focuses on defense of employers in a wide range of employment related claims such as worker's compensation, co-employee, retaliatory discharge, outrage and related matters. He has been representing employers, carriers and third-party administrators in worker's compensation matters for 25 years.

Mr. Christie is a member of the Alabama State Bar, the Birmingham Bar Association, the Alabama Worker's Compensation Claim Organization, the Alabama Defense Lawyers Association and the Defense Research Institute. He is a member of the Worker's Compensation Defense Institute.

Mr. Christie frequently lectures on worker's compensation topics and other matters impacting employers' liability for work-place injuries. He speaks annually at the Worker's Compensation Institute's Worker's Compensation Educational Conference held in Orlando, FL.

Mr. Christie graduated from the University of the South, Sewanee in 1989 and Cumberland School of Law in 1992.
