

Larry Anderson

Mr. Larry Anderson has worked for over 47 years within the government for the U.S. Navy, U.S. Postal Service and OSHA. Most recently he retired from OSHA after 24 years as a Safety and Health Compliance Officer in which he conducted numerous investigations and inspections of complaints, accidents, explosions and fatalities.

As a Compliance Officer he has attended numerous safety and NFPA fire courses at the OSHA Training Institute and at the Bergen County, New Jersey Fire Academy. Mr. Anderson has provided technical assistance at the World Trade Center Disaster, The Gulf Coast Oil Spill and during the relief efforts during the 2004 hurricane season. In the past he has been a certified EMT, Firefighter, Fire Inspector, Hazmat Technician and an instructor in First Aid, CPR, SCBA, and Defensive Driving.

Mr. Anderson is an adjunct instructor at the University of South Florida, Occupational Training Institute Center in Tampa, FL