

Evelyn Capdevila

Evelyn Capdevila, PT, MPT, is a licensed physical therapist with over 25 years in the field. Ms. Capdevila has extensive experience working in an outpatient setting as a Clinical Director, Clinic owner, Medicare surveyor, educator, chart auditor, clinical review specialist and post payment auditor. Since 2009, Ms. Capdevila has been performing chart audits, for state and federal compliance in regards to documentation and reimbursement, as well as appeals and reconsiderations. She has given in services and courses to clinics and therapists in Florida and New York. Ms. Capdevila is on the committee for Florida National University Physical Therapist Assistant program, volunteers with the APTA and has spoken at a national conference for minority Physical Therapists. Ms. Capdevila earned her Master of Physical Therapy degree from Nova Southeastern University in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.