

Kip A. Kubin

Kip A. Kubin is Of Counsel in the law firm of Martin, Pringle, Oliver, Wallace & Bauer L.L.P. He has been practicing law since 1983 primarily in litigation involving workers compensation, employment, Native American, administrative, and personal injury law.

Mr. Kubin has represented clients through all phases of litigation involving jury and court trials on both the state and federal levels in Kansas and Missouri. He has argued cases before the appellate courts in Missouri and Kansas as well as in the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals. He has also handled cases in the administrative courts of Kansas and Missouri, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the National Indian Gaming Commission and the NCAA.

Kip attended the University of Kansas where he graduated in 1980. He also received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Kansas in 1983. Kip is admitted to practice before the state district and appellate courts in Kansas and Missouri, the Federal District Court in Kansas, and the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Mr. Kubin is a member and past President of the Johnson County Bar Association, and is a member of the Kansas and Missouri Bar Associations, and served on the Board of Governors for the Kansas Bar Association.

Mr. Kubin speaks frequently at seminars and continuing legal education conferences and is listed in Best Lawyers in America. Kansas City Magazine has also listed him as one of the 100 Best Lawyers in Kansas City. In addition, Mr. Kubin has been designated a "Super Lawyer" by Law and Politics and KC Magazine, a distinction given to only the upper 5% of the profession. Mr. Kubin has achieved the AV rating in Martindale-Hubbell. Mr. Kubin served on the Kansas Workers Compensation Advisory Board from 1995 to 2004. In 2009, Mr. Kubin was inducted as a fellow to the College of Workers Compensation Lawyers and currently serves as President.