

Chad McGee
VP Claims Advocacy | Principal

Chad joined Pritchard & Jerden in 2014 as Claims Manager. In 2016 he became a Principal and a Vice President for Claims Advocacy. He is responsible for managing the P&J Claims and Loss Control Team and also handling claims activities on complex commercial accounts. Chad received his BBA in Business Management from University of Georgia. He has over 14 years' claims experience in the insurance industry. He started his career with AIG Truck and Aviation, which provided him with claims experience as well as dealing with the coinsurance/reinsurance market in London. Chad has also worked as a claims advocate for Beecher Carlson insurance services, and most recently was the Divisional Vice President of claims analytics for Artex/Arthur J. Gallagher.