

Honorable Frank McKay

Frank R. McKay is the Chairman of the Georgia State Board of Workers' Compensation, appointed by Governor Nathan Deal. He came to the Board from private practice where he was a partner in the Stewart, Melvin & Frost law firm in Gainesville, Georgia. His practice was concentrated in workers' compensation, and he tried and presented many cases before the Administrative Law Courts and the Georgia Court of Appeals. He is a former Special Assistant Attorney General handling workers' compensation claims for the State of Georgia. He obtained his law degree (J.D.) from Walter F. George School of Law, Mercer University, and his undergraduate degree (B.A. Economics) from Clemson University. He was on the State Board's Advisory Council prior to being appointed the Chairman.

