

Ice Cream for Brooklyn

Brooklyn loves ice cream. And this special kid from Ohio found more of it than she could eat when she visited Give Kids The World Village in Kissimmee, Florida.

Give Kids The World Village is an 89-acre, whimsical nonprofit resort, that provides week-long, cost-free wish vacations to critically ill children and their families from around the world who want to visit Central Florida. Families that visit Give Kids The World must be referred by one of more than 250 wish-granting organizations or foundations, such as Make-A-Wish Foundation.

A stay at the Village is much more than a weeklong vacation; it's a chance for these families to laugh together, play together, and create unforgettable memories away from hospital stays and medical treatments.

"My daughter had the best time at the Village. She enjoyed the characters that came to visit her every night, and during the day she enjoyed the pool. For a kid with a disability, this memory will last a lifetime for us" Brooklyn's mom said. "We had the best time. I remember the day we left; she was very emotional and didn't want to leave. She enjoyed all the ice cream she wanted to eat."

Last year, the Village closed to wish families like Brooklyn's due to the global pandemic, delaying more than 6,000 wishes. Despite the closure, the Village created a unique opportunity last December for visitors and donors to experience – Night of a Million Lights. Night of a Million Lights was designed to raise funds to ensure that the wishes of critically ill children could return bigger and better than ever before once the time was right to reopen. Last year, USA Today named Night of a Million Lights the "Number One Thing To Do in December in Orlando."

It was such a huge success that the Village has decided to do it again this year and the Workers' Compensation Institute is playing it's part in bringing it back. WCI has organized a Gala event "Winter Wonderland" to be held December 11, 2021 in conjunction with GKTW's second annual Night of a Million Lights.
